

Name _____

Date _____

SECTION 2 RETEACHING ACTIVITY Why People Move

RECOGNIZING EFFECTS

The chart below lists events associated with human movement. Write one effect for each cause listed.

Cause	Effect
Ethnic conflict erupts in an area.	1.
Employment opportunities in an area begin to expand.	2.
Migrants cannot find affordable housing inside a city.	3.
As people migrate, they bring their culture with them.	4.
A group or government may not want or be able to help a group of immigrants or refugees.	5.

Name _____

Date _____

SECTION 1 RETEACHING ACTIVITY The Geography of Population

READING COMPREHENSION

Find the missing word or phrase that best completes each of the sentences below. Write your answers in the blanks.

birth rate	population	rural demographer	population density	urban
death rate	population distribution	35-40
habitable lands	rate of natural increase	60-70

- The population growth that results from the natural processes of birth and death is called the _____.
- Around 100 years ago, most people lived in _____ areas, on farms, and in small villages.
- Earth's _____ has increased by around 5 billion people in the last 200 years.
- A _____ studies the characteristics of human populations.
- The _____ of the Earth is 113 people per square mile.
- The number of people born per 1,000 people is called the _____.
- Humans primarily settle in _____ or lands that have enough resources to support life.
- Around _____ percent of the Earth's land is too hot, too cold, too wet, or too dry for human settlement.
- The number of deaths per 1,000 people is called the _____.
- About half the world's population lives in _____ areas, such as cities and their suburbs.